THE FELPS FAMILY

Compiled by Roy H. Parks, Attorney at Law, Lynchburg, Tenn.
Original copy owned by: Mrs. Hattie Rogers, Lynchburg, Tenn.

'The proper spelling of this name is Phelps, but it has always been spelled 'Felps' by those of the name which settled in Lincoln Co., Tennessee in the early part of the nineteenth century.

1423
Britain Felps, a North Carolinian by birth, was the first of the Felps name to settle in Lincoln Co., Tennessee and is the founder of the family in that section. On Deed Book A-1 page 53 in the office of the register of Lincoln Co., Tenn. there is registered a deed from Jacob Waggoner to Britain Felps dated Feb. 10, 1810 conveying 125 acres of land. This deed recites: That said Jacob Waggoner has sold unto the said Brittain Felps a certain tract or parcel of land lying and being in the county of Lincoln on the waters of Mulberry including the improvements where upon the said Felps now lives, containing 125 a. which was entered and patented in the name of Newton Cannon. This deed was witnessed by Hardy Holman and Andrew Waggoner.

Another deed dated Jan. 27th, 1824, registered in deed book G-1 page 119, in said register's office is from Kelin Felps to Brittain Felps, and conveying the interest of Kelin Felps 250 in the estate of Thomas Felps to Brittain Felps.

On page 290 of deed book G-1 is registered a deed from George Ingle to Brittain Felps, dated Jan. 13, 1825, and another deed from Ingle to said Felps conveying 11 a. of land, is dated Jan. 18, 1825, and is registered in deed book G-1, page 288 in said office.

Brittain Felps and wife Susan (Waggoner) Felps and Jacob Waggoner, brother of Susan Felps, were North Carolinians who came to Tenn. about the year 1800.

It is a tradition of the family that they first settled near Nashville, Tenn. where they remained for a year or so, or perhaps as long as three years, after which they came to Lincoln Co., Tenn. Brittain Felps settled in that section of the county called Gattistown on the farm, on which Thomas Mitchell now lives and owns (1925).

Their son, Thomas Felps, was born at this place, the Felps home then being a small log cabin like those of the early settlers of this country, Ezekiel Felps an older son of Brittain Felps and wife Susan, was a baby when the Felps emigrated to Tenn. from North Carolina. The trip from North Carolina to Tenn. was made on horseback and Susan carried Ezekiel in her lap from North Carolina to Tenn.

Brittain Felps on July 15th, 1826, by a deed bearing that date recorded in deed book G-1 page 478 in the office of the register of Lincoln Co., Tenn. acquired a tract of land from Collins or Colin Campbell containing 640 acres. This was the land on West Mulberry Creek as the deed recites owned by Brittain Felps when he died. The tract is now in the 8th Civil District of Moore Co., Tenn.

Brittain Felps died many years ago, prior to his wife, the latter dying sometime just before the beginning of the Civil War.

Mrs. R.A. Parks, a grand-daughter of the Felps, born in the year _____, remembers her grandmother Susan, also does Mrs. Matt Dickey another grand-daughter-but neither remembers their grandfather. But Mrs. Dickey remembers being at a burying when quite small but she can not say whether it was that of her grandfather, Brittain, or that of her Uncle John, a son of Brittain. Mrs. Parks and Mrs. Dickey agree that their grandmother, Susan was very old when they first remember her, and that she died before the beginning of the Civil War. They describe her as a stockily built woman, low of stature, blue eyed and of fair complexion; that her hair was very thin and white, but that they have always understood that the natural color of her hair was sandy or reddish. She was thoroughly Dutch, and had a Dutch Bible, from which she would sometimes read. She was born in North Carolina, during the Revolutionary War. Mrs. Parks says has been her understanding.

Susan would often relate things that happened in her North Carolina home during this war. One of which was that when the 'Tory' army was passing her home one of the army stragglers, a woman, left a child with the family which was kept and raised by them, being named Joe.

Prior to her death on July 24, 1903, Roy H. Parks secured a statement from Mrs. Jean (called 'Jane') Holt, his grandmother who was the daughter of Brittain and Susan Waggoner Felps. In this statement Mrs. Jean Holt says she was born in Lincoln Co., Tenn. June 26, 1822; that her fathers full name was Brittain Felps, and that he always so signed his name. That he was born in North Carolina near the Yadkin River, and the maiden name of the mother of Brittain Felps was Jean Smith. That Jean Smith was born in Rowan Co., North Carolina (and in this connection Mrs. Parks says she always understood that Jean Smith Felps lived near Salisbury, N. Carolina, the county seat of Rowan Co.) The brothers and sisters of Brittain Felps (also spelled Britton & Brittain) were: Abner Felps Jr., Ferby, a sister who married Ned Williams; John Felps; Thomas Felps; Samuel Felps; William Felps; Keeling or Keelin Felps; Ezekiel Felps, Sr., Eddie who married Owen Norman; and Jean or Jennie who married Frank Williams. She states that Brittain Felps father was named Abner Felps and that Abner Felps, as she supposes emigrated from England, and settled in N. Carolina.

Abner Felps lived and died in N. Carolina, and is buried there. He was not a soldier of the Revolutionary War. That he was not a Tory, however.

Mrs. Holt states that her grandmother was named Susanna Waggoner, Susan Ann most probably; that the name of her brothers and sisters were, Daniel Waggoner, John, Mollie who married Jake Lopp(?) 1844? Sarah who married her cousin Jake Waggoner; Amelia who married Henry Leonard; Kate who married Daniel Leonard; Jake, George 1848? and Davy, making five bros. and three sisters, a family of nine children in all of the family. 1829

She states further that Susan Waggoner was born during the Revolutionary War in Rowan Co., N. Carolina. Mrs. Holt pronounced the name as if spelled Roanne.

That Susan died at the beginning of the Civil War on West Mulberry Creek in what was then Lincoln Co., Tenn; and that she is buried in the Carriger Graveyard near what is the village of Booneville, Lincoln Co., Tenn. She states that Susan was Dutch and was educated in the Dutch language, and spoke English with an accent. Susans father's name was Jake Waggoner, he was not a soldier of the Revolutionary war. He was a cripple, and a patriot. Jake Waggoner was Dutch also and had emigrated to North Carolina from Europe. Jake Waggoner lived and died in North Carolina, is buried there.

The mother of Susan (Waggoner) was Kate Yant- Yant was her maiden name, she was Dutch and spoke Dutch-never spoke English at all. She died in Lincoln Co., Tenn. Katie Yant was born in Germany and emigrated from that country to N. Carolina.

Mrs. Holt remembers, too, the tradition in the family about the child being left with the parents of Susan (Waggoner) Felps by the Tory army. She states that a woman who was following the Tory Army or English Army left her child at the home of the parents of Susan, when the army passed through that section of North Carolina and that they named the child Joe, and after the war was over the woman came and reclaimed her child and took it away with her.

She states that David Waggoner, Uncle of Susan, was a Revolutionary soldier. She states that Brittain Felps -(X) her father died July 16, 1847, on West Mulberry Creek, and was buried in the Carriger Graveyard. She states that Brittain and Susan were married, she supposes about 20 years after the Revolutionary War; that they married before coming to Tennessee. That they first settled near Nashville on the Stone River and from there moved to East Mulberry Creek in Lincoln Co. and then to West Mulberry Creek where they lived until they died. Mrs. Holt says that Brittain and Susan (Waggoner) Felps had 13 children namely: Edith, Katie, Davy, Jake, Susan, Tom, Brittain, Ezekiel, John, Pop, Jean, Sallie, Jasper also called Jasper Newton. David Felps lived and died in Texas near Austin. Brittain lived and died in Texas near Austin too. Jean Felps married Jordan Cain Holt as a second husband. Mrs. Holt died July 24, 1903

Susan (Waggoner) Felps survived her husband Brittain Felps some 10 or 12 years. Mrs. Matt Dickey Mrs. Parks remember her well, she always wore a fine lace cap and carried a large bunch of keys tied to her waist band. She owned many negro slaves, most of whom had grown old with the family, and she looked after the management of the large farm on Mulberry Creek which Brittain Felps owned when he died. She spoke English with an accent, and would often complain about the black sticky mud of this section saying she was raised in a sandy country where there was no mud.

Mrs. Dickey and Mrs. Parks remember one of these old slaves, his name was Jake, and he was regarded as a very mean negro, while back in North Carolina this negro slave became involved in an insurrectionary plot among the slaves, was detected in the plot in a raid made on the slaves, a box of soldiers trappings, consisting of swords and a uniform, was found in this negro's possession. He was tried and convicted, and sentenced to undergo a severe whipping. He was then brought to Tenn. by Brittain Felps, but was always regarded as a mean and dangerous negro.

Mrs. Dickey has heard her father, Thomas Felps, say a number of times that Brittain Felps (his father) made thirteen trips back to N. Carolina to assist in winding up the estate of his parents and the parents of his wife, Susan-that these trips were made on horseback, their little dog accompanied them on each trip.

Brittain and his wife, Susan, first settled on Stone River where they remained for yr. or so-or perhaps as long as three years. Then moved to Lincoln Co., Tenn. and settled on a farm in Gattistown-on a farm now owned by Thos. Mitchell. Here they built themselves a log cabin, and here their son Thomas was born, when they emigrated from North Carolina their son, Ezekiel, was a baby in arms, and his mother carried him in lap on horseback from N. Carolina, near Salisbury in Rowan Co., to where the family settled on Stone River.

The children of Brittain Felps and Susan (Waggoner) were: Edith Evelyn, a daughter who married Allen Tucker and who's children were: Mack who married Jennie Tankersley, and father of Frank Tucker-Martin Tucker was 2nd son of Edith & Allen Tucker; Amanda who married William Smith and their children were Mack, Rufus, Mollie who married John Riddle, Jeanette who married a son of Esq. EXCERPTS FROM DIARY OF LOZELLE JUDSON NORMAN WRITTEN BY HER MOTHER,
MATTIE BATES HANKS NORMAN

Contributed by Dorothy Eoline Broadaway Carter

You were born July 26, 1893 at 3:30 o'clock P.M. in Mimosa, then called "Bucksnort", weighed seven pounds. Your Aunt Sara (Hanks) gave you your first pair of shoes and stockings, no. 1 shoes. Ruhmie Pamplin gave you 3 yds. white flannel for undershirts. You had your first sickness in Feb. 1894. Dr. Curlee came several times to see you. There was a heavy fall of snow during the time.

We went to Pa's (Isaac Jennings Hanks) on Pea Ridge in June and stayed two weeks. Mrs. Mattie Small Mickle sent you a pretty ring for your first birthday present, and Josie Bates of Texas sent you a nice white dress.

In March 1895, we moved from Mimosa up to Pa's old place. Mr. John Edmison & family lived just below us, and Edna & Laura came often to see us.

We moved back to Mimosa to the same house on Jan. 1st, 1896. Oda (Pamplin) stayed with us a few weeks, and your Aunt Tennie (Hanks) came and stayed with us until in the summer. Then she went to your Aunt Alice's (Hanks). Mrs. Mickles sent you a nice white silk handkerchief and you kept it a long time, but lost it at church one day.

At Christmas 1896, I made you and Jennie May (sister to Lozelle) a big doll apiece, stuffed with cotton and I painted their heads, faces hands and feet. You called yours "Sallie Bets."

The year 1897 you had Lola Jones for a playmate. At Christmas that year, we went to your Aunt Sara's (Pamplin) on Friday and stayed til Monday. You and sister got china dolls, candies, etc. In March 1898 we went to your Aunt Tennie's for the first time. She and Hugh (Haynie) had married the 3rd day of Sept. 1897.

We went to Pea Ridge the 13th of Aug. and stayed a week at Pa's and Alice's. We stayed one day at Uncle John Kay's and that was the last time we ever saw him for he died in the fall.

We went to a surprise dinner at Mr. Jim Edmondson's the 4th Sun. in Nov. It was given to Mrs. Edmondson, who was then in feeble health. She died April 18th 1899.

You began to learn your letters and to spell in Sept. your Pa (Joe Davis Norman) got you some ABC books and you soon learned your letters.

Nov. 26 Sunday) Your Aunt Sara's (Pamplin) twin boys were born today. She named the boys, William Jennings and John Gordon. We moved to Uncle Armp's (Pamplin) place Dec. 13, 1899.

Jan. 8, 1900. You and Jennie May went to Aunt Sara's and Ermine and Rotha came home with you.

Your Pa got your first reader, second Saturday in Jan. Your Aunt Sara, the babies, Rotha, Avis and Ima stayed all night with us and all day Sunday. Ermine came on Sunday. Mar. 28th. You have done very well in your reader. Your lesson is on page 28.

Apr. 8th. Aunt Mollie & Ewen have both had la grip this week, and lots of other people have had it, too.

Apr. 19th. We all, except your pa went to your uncle Will's birthday dinner. Your Aunt Sara was very bad that day.

May 13th, 1900. Your Aunt Sara died at 2 o'clock this morning. She is at rest. She was buried at 4 o'clock this evening. Your Aunt Alice, Bernice & Barbee stayed all night over there.

(Con't Diary of Lozelle Judson Norman)

May 25th. Aunt Bett Whitworth died of dropsy June 1st. Our dear friend, Edna E. Warden died at 9:35 P.M. Her little baby had been dead two weeks.

June 8th. It has rained for over a week and we have been shut indoors. You have turned several leaves in your reader. You have gotten to "Bee sting," as you call it.

June 10. Dr. Curlee died at 2 o'clock yesterday eve, the 9th.

July 11. Uncle Abram Hank's has been on a visit to us all, from Mansfield, Mo. He brought us pictures of his three daughters and several of his grandchildren, himself and wife.

Nov. 17. We moved back to Mimosa today into the Ned Isom house. Pa, Allen, Tennie and Myra (Haynie) came. Maidie (Jordan) came with us, and stayed nearly all day. Ivy came too.

Sunday, Nov. 18. Pa, Allen Hanks, Tennie, Hugh Haynie and Myra, Mack, Ruhamie & Ruby Pamplin & Jeff Haynie were all here today. Also Mr. Jim Edmondson and Flora Warden.

Friday, Nov. 23) Hugh played his phonograph here tonight and there was a house full - Jim & Nettie Woodard with their children, Annie May, Willie and Elmo stayed all night.

Tuesday, Dec. 25. You got a big stick of candy an orange, two apples, some chestnuts and a doll last night. We went to Mr. Tom Pitts this afternoon and stayed in the store all evening. Mr. Pitts gave you all a stick of Long Johnie wax and Flora gave you some candy and wax.

Dec. 27. Floyd Warden gave you a horse shoe stickpin.

Dec. 29. We stayed all day with Ivy Edmondson. You received a nice present from Mrs. Mattie Mickle of Texas. You and Jennie May got a little ring apiece, which I gave you. I sent Arbuckle coffee signatures for them.

Mar. 11, 1901. You and sister started to school today to Miss Summers Curlee. You are going the second time through the first reader.

Friday, March 15. Miss Summers taught school at home today because it was snowing and cold. You and Jennie May were all there were except Mrs. Curlee's children.

Wed. 27. Summers closed her school today, as she did not have enough pupils to justify her to teach. She is going to another school to teach.

Fri. 29. Ivy Edmondson died at 8:55 P.M. today. I sat up there.

Sun. 31. Ivy Edmondson was buried today. You all and Ruby stayed at Will Warden's with Laura Bias while Ruhamie, Ruthie and I went to the funeral. A good girl has gone to her rest.

Tues., Apr. 2. Your Pa got you a second reader yesterday and you are doing nicely today reading.

May 23. You had another tooth pulled by Dr. Ashley last Thursday and Maidie, your Aunt Alice, Miss Etta George spent the day here. I bought a bottle of lemon and pair of little scissors from Etta for 15 cts. The scissors are for you and Jennie May.

Nov. 3rd. We heard yesterday of the death of Mrs. Lillian Isom of Okla. She was a dear friend of mine. She died the 28th of Oct. 1901. We went last Sunday to Uncle Armp's Pamplin to preaching and Uncle Armp, Aunt Mollie and Maidie joined the church. Elder Little of the Christian Church preached. On the following Tuesday they were baptized and Ewen joined at the creek and was baptized, too.

Nov. 11. Well, we are moved and settled and like our home very well. Aunt Caroline came yesterday and Ruhmie & Ruby after dinner; also Maidie and Ione Bates.

Nov. 29th). I washed today and don't feel very well tonight. I took cold. Minnie Isom, a little black girl helped me and then I fixed a dress for her this afternoon.

Dec. 25. You children got up before day to see what Santa Claus had brought. You ate so much candy you could not eat any breakfast. We spent the day at your uncle Jim's (Norman) and Lou's brother, Henry McGhee, of Okla. was there.

Mon. 30. Aunt Caroline and I made Ermine & Rotha a dress apiece.

Feb. 15th 1902. It sleeted and snowed all day yesterday and last night and there is about two inches of snow on the ground today. You all are playing Santa Claus now. I will have you to read your lesson directly.

Apr. 5. Your Aunt Alice, Bernice & Barbee, Aunt Caroline & your Aunt Low were here this afternoon.

April 14. Your little brother, Dixie Allan came today. You think he is a sweet little fellow.

May 1st Sun. Sister Alice and Maidie stayed with us all day. We were so glad to see Alice & Maidie, too. Ossie (?Jordan) & Ewen were here too. Emma Norman stayed a week and a half with us.

July 14. You, sister and Paul started to school this morning to Mr. George Alexander at Beech Grove school house.

Dec. 27. We will move to the Cothran place as soon as we can or in a few days.

July 7, 1905. Well, it has been over a year since I wrote last. Last year we lived in the Ned Isom house in Mimosa. Ennis Abram was born there on the 5th of July 1904. You went to school to Miss Jessie Hopper. We moved here to Renegar on Stewart's Creek on the 2nd of Jan. 1905. We are all very well pleased here. You went to school to Mr. Carl Brown in the spring. Now, your teacher is Miss Lula Hickman.

ISAAC J. HANKS

At his home, six miles south of Fayetteville, on Monday, September 23, 1912, at 10:15 a.m. Mr. Isaac J. Hanks passed into rest after four week's illness. He was very patient, and though he suffered severely he seemed to be looking forward to the moment of his release from his sufferings. He died at 11:30 a.m. and was buried in the cemetery at Fayetteville, Arkansas, on Tuesday, September 24, 1912.

earthly house of clay, that he might enter into the house of many mansions prepared for those who love and serve the Lord.

He was born on Nov. 19, 1835, and was nearly 77 years old. He married Miss Nancy Pamplin on March 22, 1863, with which he lived happily till August 1, 1891, when the Lord called her home. On December 15, 1892, he was married to Mrs. Sarah Daniel, who was a good and true helpmate to him the years they dwelt together. He united with the Methodist church in his early manhood and lived an honest, upright life, daily walking in his Master's steps quietly doing his life work. He is survived by his wife and three daughters, Mrs. Joe D. Norman, of Fayetteville; Mrs. Hugh L. Haynie, Alberta, Canada; Mrs. Jack Haynie, of Howell; and one son, Mr. I.A. Hanks of Fayetteville, and a brother, Mr. Abram Hanks, of Mansfield, Mo.

ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS FOR THE WILLIAM CRAWFORD BIBLE

Contributed by Elizabeth R. Wishnevsky, Rt. 1, Polly Adams Rd., Belfast, TN 37019

NOTE: The William Crawford Bible appears in Lincoln County Tennessee Bible Records Vol. 2 pages 132-35

62 Ebenezer Titus is not only my ancestor, but is the forefather of many other Lincoln County researchers, being the father-in-law of William Crawford (1780-1859) by his first marriage to Rachel Titus. They were the parents of ten children and have many descendants.

In the first entry of the published version, which states, "Rachel M.B. Titus, deceased Oct. the ____ the year of our Lord 1795, at 4 o'clock in the morn. Aged sixty three years, after bearing seven children, she lived til after the death of three, to wit, John, Arthur and Moses Bowers." This should read, "John, Arthur and Moses Bowen." Looking further in xeroxed copies of the handwritten form of the William Crawford Bible, but not in the published version were these entries:

"John Bowen was marryed March 5, 1756
John Bowen was born Aprile 10th 1757
Arther (Arthur) Bowen was born Aug 23rd 1758
Ann Bowen was born Aprile 26th 1760
Moses Bowen was born June 10th 1762
Rebacha (Rebecca) Bowen was born Janry 20th 1764
William Bowen was born March 6, 1766
Elizabeth Bowen was born Nov. 30th, 1767"

Here was a list of seven children, the children of John Bowen. Could they also be the children of Rachel M.B.? Three of these were of the same names as those who had died before their mother, Rachel M.B., they were, John, Arthur and Moses. This matter certainly deserved the effort to search further. Just prior to the account of John Bowen's marriage, and in the same Bible, "John Bowen Deceased August 11th at 9 o'clock in the morning, the year of our Lord 1768 Aged 31 years." Research led to an account of the family of John Bowen, Jr. and his wife, Rachel Mathews, in Kegley's Virginia Frontier, on page 367. It tells of the marriage of John and Rachel Mathews Bowen - Rachel M.B.?! In his will, on same page, John Bowen names his wife, Rachel, and six of the above children. Only Arthur was left out, which suggests that he died before his father.

The next question, obviously, was, could Rachel M.B. have been the mother of our Rachel Titus? Probably not, since she died in 1795 when she was sixty three years old and would have been fifty when Rachel Titus was born in 1782. To bear out this fact was that her death notice stated that she had born seven children. If her family was proud enough to mention this, wouldn't they have been even more proud to note that she had more than seven? It would make matters easier if we didn't have to continue our search for an earlier marriage for our Ebenezer Titus, of whom we are so proud, but in my opinion, we owe him at least that much - to keep trying. In the book, Three Tennessee Pioneer Documents, published by the Tennessee Historical Commission in 1964, we find our Ebenezer's name as a signer of the Cumberland Compact, and in the Minutes of the Cumberland Court, at almost all of the meetings. His son, James Titus, went to went on to Madison County, Ala. as the only member of a one-man Senate, and finally, to East Texas with his brother, George. The Titus family were true pioneers, and ancestors to be proud of, by an standards.

Of the rest of the Bowen children, there is also this - under "Deaths" "Elizabeth B.C. (Bowen, Clark) Banet died June 15th, 1824 Aged 57 years" Subtracting 57 from 1824, we come up with the year 1767, which agrees with the date of birth given for Elizabeth Bowen. Davidson County, Tenn. records state that she was married to Lardner Clark.

"Nancy B. Mathews Died July ____ 1807. Aged 47 years." (This is Ann Bowen, third child of John and Rachel Mathews Bowen. She was born in 1760, and married John Mathews, a cousin.)

"William Bowen Died October 1828, Aged 62 years
Rebecca B. Frazor Died May 1835, Aged 71 years" (Rebecca Bowen married Daniel Frazor/Frazer)

Subtracting aged at death from year of death, it all fits together, and we come up with their year of birth as previously given. The birthdates of the children of Ebenezer Titus are given also and the dates of death of his two daughters, Pheby T. Renick, who died Sept. 1815 at the age of 35, and Rachel Crawford "daughter of Ebenezer Titus, died on the 25th of June in the year of our Lord 1841, Aged 58 years, 10 months, 24 days."

An error which should be corrected. The next entry under Rachel Crawford's death, was this, "Nancy T.P. Arendail, daughter of the above Rachel Crawford Died September 9th, 1843, lacking one day of being 33 years." This in the original, handwritten Bible. In the published account, on page 133 Vol. 2 LCT Bible Records, it says that she was the daughter of Ebenezer Titus. Ebenezer didn't have a daughter named Nancy.

JOHN M. STONE

Contributed by Arthur M. Reagan, 5101 Maris Ave., 101, Alexandria, VA 22304

Taken from Portrait and Biographical Review of Johnson, Massac, Pope and Hardin Counties, Illinois (Chicago: Biographical Publishing Company, 1893), pp. 262-63 - Elvira Township, Johnson County

John M. Stone, who entered the army shortly after the war broke out, ere he had attained man's estate, and served his country long and well on the terrible battlefields of the South, is a potent factor in sustaining and extending the agricultural interests of Johnson County. His farm, lying on section 23, Elvira Township, is finely improved, and is one of the most desirable places in the neighborhood.

Mr. Stone was born in Lincoln County, Tenn., November 27, 1842. His father, James Stone, was a native of the same county, while his grandfather, Moses Stone, is thought to have been a native of North Carolina, and was an early settler of Lincoln County, where he spent his last years. 1882

The father of our subject was reared and married in Tennessee. He served in the Indian War in Florida, and received a land warrant for one hundred and sixty acres of land for his services. After his marriage he settled in his native State on a tract of land that his father gave him. In 1843 he decided to try his fortunes in Missouri, and emigrated thither with his wife and three children, traveling with a team, and cooking and camping on the way at nightfall for a period of seven weeks. Arriving at his destination in Hickory County, he entered a tract of Government land, and his first work was to build a log cabin to shelter his family. In 1858 he went into Arkansas prospecting, but did not find a location that suited him, and continuing his journey he came to Illinois and selected Johnson County for his future home. He rented land and resided here until his death, April 1, 1868. His worthy wife survives him, and makes her home with her children. Her name was Mildred Reese before marriage, and she was born in Bedford County, Va., October 1, 1820. Her father, Robert Reese, was likewise a native of that county, and was a son of Berry and Sarah Reese. He removed from Virginia to Tennessee in 1832, bought land in Lincoln County, Tenn., and improved a farm, upon which he dwelt until his life was rounded out by his death. The maiden name of his wife was Nancy Minor. She was born in the same Virginia county that he was, and was a daughter of William and Mildred (St. John) Minor. The parents of our subject had eight children, two sons and six daughters.

John M. Stone, of this sketch, was an infant when the family removed to Missouri. There were no free schools whatsoever where they lived, and all were taught on the subscription plan, the one that our subject attended being held in a log house that had no floor, and was heated by a fireplace, while the furniture was of the most primitive home manufacture. The seats were made by splitting logs, hewing one side smooth, and inserting wooden pins for legs, and they had no backs and no desks in front. The family being poor, young Stone began at an early period of his career to assist in its support. He made his home beneath the parental roof until 1861. In August of that year he volunteered his services to help save the Old Flag from dishonor, enlisting in Company B, Thirty-first Illinois Infantry, commanded by John A. Logan. He acted well his part as a soldier in the many battles in which he took part, among which we may mention the following: Belmont, where he received a flesh wound in the arm, which was the only mark of the enemy's skill in shooting of which he could boast throughout his long experience in the army; after Belmont, Ft. Henry, Ft. Donelson, Shiloh, siege of Corinth, Champion Hill, Raymond, and the siege and capture of Vicksburg. He was veteranized in January, 1864, and was granted a furlough of thirty days. He then rejoined his command at Clifton, Tenn., in season to take part in the battle waged at that point, and subsequently accompanied Gen. Sherman on his famous campaign to Atlanta, and from that city to the sea with the victorious army, and still onward to Washington through the Carolinas and by way of Petersburg and Richmond to the capital of the Nation, where our subject and his comrades participated in the Grand Review of the Union forces. From there his regiment was sent to Louisville, and thence to Springfield, where it was honorably discharged in July 1865, after a long and bitter experience of the horrors of war, extending over a period of four years.

Soon after his return Mr. Stone bought forty acres of land in Elvira Township, which he occupied until 1878, when he purchased his present farm on section 23 of the same township. It is a well-kept farm of one hundred and eighty acres, of which one hundred and fifty acres are in a fine state of cultivation, and it is amply provided with good buildings for every needed purpose. Our subject has his place well stocked with a good class of cattle, horses and hogs. Mr. Stone is a worthy member of the Grand Army of the Republic, belonging to Vienna Post No. 221. He and his wife are also closely identified with the religious elevation of the community as active members of the Missionary Baptist Church.

Mr. Stone was first married to Miss Mary Kennedy, in November, 1866. She was born in Kentucky, and was a daughter of Jefferson and Polly Kennedy. She died in June, 1871, leaving two children, Clementine and Austin. The second marriage of our subject was with Christiana Doudy, who was born in Stoddard County, Mo., June 7, 1851, and is a daughter of Thomas and Eliza (Riddle) Doudy, who were natives of North Carolina, and were pioneers of Stoddard County. Mr. and Mrs. Stone have eight children living: Minnie Belle, Frank, Florence, Rollin, Edgar, Lemuel, Bessie and Dolly.

Mulberry Grove Prct., Bond County

J. MATTINLY, physician, Mulberry Grove, specialist of the eye and ear, also of the treatment and cure of cancers, who first saw the light of day July 7, 1813, in Lincoln County, Tenn.; son of Rollin^{1780N}, born March 10, 1788, in North Carolina, who was a son of Richard Mattinly, whose children were David, James, John, Rollin and Waring. The mother, Nancy Luttrell, was born March 31, 1793, and died May 13, 1881; she was the daughter of Michael Luttrell, a Revolutionary soldier, and who lived to be almost a centenarian, the family being remarkable for their longevity. Our subject removed with his father to Alabama, in Jackson County, when he was a lad of tender years, where they resided until the year 1830, when they came to Marion County, this State, where his father died September 6, 1866. Very much credit is due the subject of our sketch, as he was thrown upon his own resources at an early age, leaving home without shoes or sufficient clothing to shield him from the inclement weather, and unable to read the simplest sentence in a newspaper. He hired out at $6 per month, and assisted in maintaining the family in the meantime. For five years he drove stage, and during that time he made use of his spare time in improving his mind, being resolved, that as his temporal affairs were being advanced, that his mind should receive its share also. He came to this township in 1839, and was married the same year to Mary A. Hubbard, who died in 1840, leaving one son, David Rollin. His second and last wife was Sarah Tate, born in Stokes County, N.C., September 9, 1809, daughter of Samuel Tate, born in Stokes County, N.C. in 1776, and died April 23, 1842, and Sarah (Faulkner) Tate, born in Wake County, N.C., in 1775, and died in 1853. She bore him three children, two of whom are living - Lizzie, wife of John T. Buchannon, Annie and Sarah E. Soon after he came to this place, he entered a piece of land and began farming, which he continued until 1860. In the meantime he was reading scientific works, medicine being his favorite. February, 1861, he began practice in Greenville. Since April 10, 1862, he has been located here in Mulberry Grove, giving especial attention to the treatment of the eye and ear, as well as cancer, treating them with success. He has 200 acres of land, and considerable town property. The Doctor has done much to impress upon the minds of the people the necessity of the knowledge of phrenology and sexual science among the people.

ALL IS PEACE: (by Rev. W.T. Dale)"I am here waiting by the river side; but all is peace - all is peace." words of Rev. H. Bryson, D.D., as taken from 'The Fallen Prince.' (Poem to Air 'In the Sweet, By and By)...Molino, Tenn., Feb., 23, 1877."

MARCH 8, 1877

LYNCHBURG: Our friend Dennis B. Holt, of Lynchburg, had a terrible calamity in his family a few days ago. About dusk his son, a promising young man, went home from the store, and telling his mother that he did not feel well and didn't want any supper, laid down on a bed. When called, a half hour after, he was speechless and dying. We offer our sincere sympathy to our friend and his family in their great misfortune.

The following additional particulars are from the Sentinel - The death of Mr. Azpell Holt, oldest son of D.B. Holt, last Friday evening, was one of the most sudden and unexpected occurrences that has ever shocked our community. Though complaining of feeling somewhat unwell during the day Friday, he never left his business until late in the evening, when he went into the family room at home and told his mother he felt so badly he believed he would lie down. About half past seven o'clock the family noticed that he was making a peculiar noise, as if gasping for breath, and started a runner for the doctor, thinking he had a spasm. The doctor arrived in a few minutes, but too late to render any assistance, as he breathed but once or twice after his arrival. The cause of his death is supposed to have been functionary disease of the heart, as he had experienced no symptoms of any organic disease. He was 20 years of age; a member of the Missionary Baptist Church, and a young man of exemplary moral character. Had he lived, he would have made a useful man, and by his death society has sustained a heavy loss.

VIOLENT DEATH: Mr. E.L. Allen was shot and killed, in the law office of Bright & Sons, yesterday, at 10:30 o'clock. The ball entered his mouth, causing death in a few minutes. In the excitement, no one seemed to know who did the shooting - a legal investigation will have to determine that.

DIED: In this county, on Flint, Fri., 2nd inst., of cancer, Mr. William Tate, aged about 55 years. He was buried on Swan.

BLANCHE: There were two deaths of pneumonia in the Shiloh neighborhood last week. Mrs. Elizabeth Woodard and Miss Honea, both sudden.

APRIL 12, 1877

AN OLD CITIZEN GONE: Another link that bound the present to the past generation has broken. Mr. Jacob W. Formwalt died at his residence in this place last Thursday night about 12 o'clock, after a protracted illness, and was buried the evening of the next day. He was born in Fredericktown, Maryland, April 16th, 1796, whence he emigrated at an early age to East Tennessee, thence to Pulaski, and in 1836 to Fayetteville, where the remainder of his life was spent. His name was on the government pension list, he having enlisted at the age of 16 in the war of 1812. For many years he was a member of the Presbyterian church, and his place at Sunday service, until his health failed, was seldom vacant. He possessed a kind, unobtrusive disposition, and died, it is believed, without an enemy.

In this county, on Norris creek, Wednesday, 11th inst., of old age, Mrs. Johnson, relict of Angus Johnson, dec., aged about 80 years.

In this place, Wed., 18th inst., of pneumonia, Mr. James Kirkpatrick, aged about 45 years.

APRIL 26, 1877

AN OLD MAN'S DEATH: Mr. Samuel Jones died near Camargo, this county last Saturday night, aged one hundred years one month and ten days. He was of an active temperament, and retained to a considerable degree his mental and physical vigor to the last. His habits through life did not run into excesses, which may account, to some extent, perhaps, for his great lease of life. He was of a cheerful, playful disposition, and passed his life without jarring or worry. There is no doubt that he really attained the great age named. He moved to this county 68 years ago, and settled upon the farm where he died. Indians were camped around him. The kitchen that he then built is there yet.

DIED: In this place, Sun., 22nd inst., after long suffering, a son of Mr. Jasper Billings, aged about 6 years.

DEAD: Mr. Isaac Holman, a good old citizen, aged 92 years, was found dead in his bed near George's Store, on Sun., 15th inst.

MAY 3, 1877

SYMPATHY: We sympathise deeply with our friend John A. Taylor and his estimable lady, of Kelso, in the loss of their little child, which died last week. The Saviour, in love, has taken the little one to Himself...

DIED: in this county, on Swan, Sun., 20th ult., Mrs. Barnes, wife of Mr. Henry J. Barnes, aged about 45 years.

OBITUARY: John Milton Bryan, son of B.B. and Mary Bryan, was born Dec. 18, 1855, joined the Christian Church July 16, 1876, and died April 24, 1877... He gave directions concerning his death and burial with as much composure, as if just going on a pleasant journey. The day before he died he desired to select the place of his own interment, and was carried on his bed about a quarter of a mile from his father's residence, to a beautiful grove of beech, where he carefully made choice of the place in which we afterwards laid him. Before returning, he asked those, having borne him to the place of such an affecting scene, to circle around him, as if he desired to realize the event of his own burial. He then gave words of admonition and comfort to all - partook of refreshment given by a tender hand, and was taken back to his room to fall on sleep the following night...

DEATH AT THE PENITENTIARY: L.N. Gilbert, who killed Wm. Johnson, a blind peddler, in Lincoln county, on the 20th of March, 1874, for which crime he was sentenced to be hung by the Supreme Court, but who was afterward commuted to imprisonment for life, died in the penitentiary hospital at 4:50 o'clock on Tuesday, the 1st, of phthisis pulmonalis. The Supreme Court recommended commutation on the grounds of there being some doubt as to Gilbert's sanity at the time he committed the deed. A commission of medical experts decided that Gilbert was insane at the time of the murder.

BANK TRIBUTE OF RESPECT: At a regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the First National Bank of Fayetteville...to deprive the Bank of its chief executive officer...in the death of R.S. Woodard...

ANOTHER GOOD CITIZEN GONE: Mr. Robert S. Woodard died at his residence near this place, last Monday evening at one o'clock, of inflammation of the bowels, aged about 56 years.

He had been complaining of being unwell for 10 or 15 days, but was not compelled to leave his business until last Thursday. He was elected Circuit Court Clerk of this county in 1856 and again in 1860, and was justly considered one of the best officers the county ever had. His records were models of neatness and precision. He was attentive, industrious, affable, possessed methodical habits, and invariably gave satisfaction to all with whom he had dealings, by his evidently fair intentions. We held friendly and business relations with him for over twenty years, and we never heard a profane expression from him, nor an improper remark. He was the only cashier that the First National Bank ever had, and, we are sure, a man better qualified for the position could not have been selected. He died a member of the Presbyterian church, and was buried by the Masonic fraternity.

HARDY HOLMAN - A family history of this family compiled by Mrs. Rees many years ago is published in Wilcoxon & Allied Families by Wulfeck.

BOONE FAMILY REUNION

(Taken from the Fayetteville Observer Jan. 13, 1886)

To-day with us was one of unusual pleasure and joy. As has been the custom for many years, Mrs. Cynthia Boone's children and grandchildren gathered at the old homestead to enjoy a New Year's dinner with mother and grand-ma; also her brothers and sisters, now but two remaining, the old lady and her aged brother Christian Cariger. It has also been the custom of the parents of her sons and daughter-in-law to attend these annual meetings. Of the latter class there was only Mrs. S.A. Noblitt present today. By consulting the family record, we find the following at the head: 'At the bride's father's, Nicholas Cariger, 1119 by the Rev. Hardy Holman, married, Samuel Boone to Cynthia Cariger, July 3rd, 1823.'

All of the family living were present except Capt. N. Boone and Mrs. Childs; the former was with his family at Winchester, Mrs. Childs visiting her daughter in Marshall county. At the first table to-day was seated Mrs. Boone, at the head, 84 years old; C. Cariger, 76 years; Mrs. S.A. Noblitt, 72 years; Dr. W.G. Commons, 62 years; D.C. Boone, 51 years; H.L.W. Boone, 46 years; Mrs. Leona Graham, 24 years; Boone E. Noblitt, 18 years. The ages added together aggregate 483 years, an average of 53 years and 6 months. The ages of the mother, sons & daughters now living added together make 455 years, an average of 56 years and 7 months. two dead - the eldest and youngest: Ab. S. Boone was killed near Raymond, MS, at the head of his company in a skirmish line in front of their regiment, 43rd TN, in 1863. A.H. Boone near Somerville, West Tenn., in charge with his brother, N. Boone and others of Forrest's escort, Dec. 26, 1863. The dinner was sumptuous and enjoyed by all. May the venerable mother live to enjoy many New Year days yet to come (signed) N.J. David
